

Jack Easterby

Jack Easterby, is currently in his 5th year as the University of South Carolina Campus Director for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Since being on campus he has served as the chaplain to several teams but most prominently the Men's and Women's Track and Field Teams as well as the Men's Basketball team.

Prior to his arrival on Campus in Columbia Jack served as an Assistant to the Director of Operations for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars and attended Newberry College. During his time at Newberry Jack lettered 6 times combined between Golf and Basketball and was awarded several distinguished awards. Along with being the former nine hole and single round record holder for Newberry's Golf team Jack was also a member of the 2004 South Atlantic Conference Basketball Tournament Runners-Up team and the highest ever finish for the Newberry Men's Golf team in 2004 in the South Atlantic Conference Tournament. During his Athletic career Easterby was also named to 8 consecutive semesters of the South Atlantic Conference Honor Roll and was named the South Atlantic Conference Scholar Athlete of the Year during his senior campaign. In 2005 he was named the American Legion Student Athlete of the year, added to the nation's list of Who's Who from America's Colleges and Universities, and awarded Men's Golf Character Award by the South Atlantic Conference. Newberry College also honored Easterby with their Campus Ministry Award and their Fellowship of Christian Athletes Award during his senior campaign.

Over the past four years while being with FCA Jack has had the opportunity to speak to hundreds of Churches as well as college, middle school, and high school groups all over the country. During the school year each week he leads an extremely unique Bible Study entitled "Gamecocks for Christ" with over 125 athletes from various sports on campus at the University of South Carolina. This Bible study focuses on the specific pressures and demands that athletes face on and off the court as they aim to honor Christ in all they do. Most recently He has lead a campaign to place character coaches or chaplains in Colleges and Universities all over America through the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He has also been on several ministry committees through the NCAA's Men's Basketball Final Four and has networked to encourage several notable Christian coaches in their walks with the Lord.

Jack and His wife Holly live in Columbia, SC.
